No Clearance Sale Can Equal These $25 Suits

Made to Measure at

What's the use of paying $25 in regular season for a $25 suit and LOSING $10? What's the use of paying $18 to $20-in a clearance sale-for the VERY SAME SUIT-when, in this shop-at any time-IN SEASON or DURING SALES PER-IODS-you can get PRECISELY THE SAME VALUE (and NOT "left-overs") for OLY $15? The very PURPOSE of a clearance sale is to get rid of OLD stocks. The OTHER stores have to get 75 to 100 per cent profit on their clothes-in season-to pay for their ENORMOUS RENTS, BIG EX-PENSES-and LOSSES on credit sales. They have to TACK ON THAT EXTRA $10 for running expenses-AND all season WHILE they're doing it, WE ARE SELLING the very SAME suits for ONLY $15.

We never hold clearance sales. We don't have to. We have none of those great big expenses -- and we buy and sell ONLY FOR CASH. That's why we TAKE $10 OFF. That's why we ask only
